Enlisted Ranks And Promotion Guide

The Enlisted Boot Camp Or Rifleman Training Is The Hardest Part Of Part Of Enlisted Members Time. The Enlisted Troops Will Start Easy And Move Up To More Challenging Tests And Skills Required To Receive A Promotion To The Next Rank. All Enlisted Members Must First Visit D14. As The Member Moves On They Must Have A 300+ FPS Rifle And Pistol Before They Become A Sergeant, Failure To Have The Right Equipment May Result In A Temporary Stand-Still In The Ranking Process. It Is Also Required That Before The Recruit Becomes a Private First Class That They Have Multicam. If The Recruit Can Not Afford Or Can't Find The Correct Uniform It Is Important That The Recruit Contacts Recruiting And Military Outreach Department For Assistance. It Is Also Requested Than Any Rifle That Does Not Fit And American Loadout First Be Approved By A Fireteam Leader. The American Loadout Consists Of M4 Style Rifles, SCAR L-H, AR 15, Glock Brand. Can Not Afford To Purchase The Correct Uniform/Rifle. (If Recruits Refuse After 12 Months They Will Be Discharged From Trepidations.) After Basic Rifleman Training The Recruit May Be Placed On A Probationary Period. If The FTL Feel As If The Recruit Performed As Good As A Member Of The Elite Team, They Can Directly Transfer And Remove Your Probation Period. However If The Recruit Preforms To The Standard They Will Stay Or Move Out Of The Teams. And Transfer To Our Main Division If The FTL'S Feel As If You Perform Better. Then The Soldier Will Be Moved To The Most Elite Division, The Last Division.
